

The Warning and the Miracle

On Good Friday of April 2nd, 2010, God will touch the soul of each and every human person on earth, showing them their sins and offering them the gift of repentance. All persons on earth will know that God exists, that He loves everyone, and that He hates sin. This event is called the Warning. It was foretold by the Virgin Mary at Garabandal and at Medjugorje.

The Warning will occur about 8:51 am Eastern Daylight Time. It will occur everywhere on earth simultaneously. A loud sound and a bright flash of light will be heard and seen everywhere.

Next, each person will find themselves alone with God. This will last only a few minutes, but during that time, God will show each person the sins on their conscience, and offer them the grace to repent. Those who accept this gift will change for the better, becoming more loving, faithful, and hopeful. Those who reject this gift will change for the worse, becoming more sinful than ever before, falling away from all that is good.

During the Warning, everything will stop; all electrical devices will cease to function. This will last only a few minutes, then all will resume. No matter where you are or what you are doing at that time, you will suddenly find yourself alone before God and your conscience, being given an understanding of your own sins and failings. Since each person is a unique creation of God, each person's experience will be unique.

Many great sinners will repent greatly, but not everyone will repent. Reactions to the Warning will vary. Some good but proud persons will reject this offer to be sorrowful and humble when shown their sinfulness; they will choose to be evil. Many good and holy persons will become even holier and closer to God. Many sinners will repent and change so much that they will become holier than many persons who followed religion for their entire lives. Some religious, political, or social leaders will feign repentance, in order to keep their positions of leadership and power. Beware of these wolves in sheep's clothing.

Very many persons will react to the Warning with great fear. A few will react by committing the great sin of suicide. Some will die of shock at seeing their sins. Families, friends, work, society, and religion will all be changed in a substantial and lasting way. Many persons will find they can no longer associate with certain friends, or family members, or co-workers, because some will have changed for the better and some for the worse. Each person will know their own sins clearly, and those who repent will not want to continue any sinful associations in work, family, or friends.

The Warning of Garabandal, also called the Day of Repentance, is the same as the first secret of Medjugorje. The second secret of Medjugorje is a related event called the Day of Consolation. On Easter Sunday of April 4th, 2010, those persons who accepted the gift of repentance on the day of the Warning will be given the gift of consolation. They will have been in deep sorrow since the time of the Warning over their own sins, and the sins of humanity, and the sufferings of Jesus Christ because of sin. God will be pleased that they were willing to suffer in order to turn away from sin, so He will give them supernatural consolation, to alleviate the burden of their sorrow, and so that prayer may be their joy.

Those who refused to accept the gift of repentance at the Warning will not be given the gift of consolation. Such persons will continue to be in confusion and fear and utter desolation. For they will not only know their sins, they will know that they have rejected God. If the whole world would repent, much suffering would be avoided. But because many will not repent, the great suffering of the first part of the tribulation will soon overwhelm the whole world.

The Miracle foretold at Garabandal is the same as the third secret of Medjugorje. This will occur on Ascension Thursday of May 13th, 2010, which is 40 days after the Consolation. The Miracle is three-fold: (a) There will be very many miraculous healings all over the earth. Every kind of illness and injury will be healed. Every nation and city and town will have persons who are miraculously healed. The body, as well as the whole person, will be healed. However, not everyone will be healed. Some persons will not be healed in body because of the unrepentant sins in their souls. (b) Miraculous Permanent Signs will be left in the places where the Virgin Mary has appeared, including Medjugorje, Garabandal, and many other places. (c) A vast number of unbelievers will be converted to Catholicism.

The purpose of these events is to prepare the world for the intense sufferings of the tribulation, which will occur from 2010 to early 2040 A.D.
